

ELIST in Italy

23-27 Nov 2015—Bisceglie (Puglia)

The 5 days training course with participants from Austria, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Bulgaria, Turkey and Spain was a big success and enabled young people to explore ideas of entrepreneurship and sustainable development in rural areas. Participants were encouraged to enhance entrepreneurial competences to empower people living in rural areas to take active participation in the local development and change towards a more sustainable society. Learning from good practices, the experience of others and fruitful exchange and discussions have been the focus of this training activity.

Topics

covered: Leadership, HR management, fund raising, innovation in agriculture related sectors, sustainable development, European policies and good practices.

,Italy is magnificent, ELIST-European Learning Innovation for Sustainable Training amazing and the people who teach us the most "useful" for the MERAKI PEOPLE business plan. Huge thank you!'

ELIST in Greece

23-27 Nov 2015—Bisceglie (Puglia)

The 5 days training course in Athens with participants from all partner countries was organised by the Academy of Entrepreneurship with a focus on entrepreneurial capacity building and mentoring.

Youth trainers acting as mentors and young entrepreneurs acting as mentees, were welcome to participate as they can learn from each other and create mutually beneficial and self-sustaining relationships generating jobs, and fostering innovation and poverty reduction through the empowerment of marginalized members of the agricultural community.

Topics covered: Capacity building for rural development, for mentors and mentees, stakeholder engagement, community empowerment, user centered design for entrepreneurship and good practices.

Local training activities

Pilot testing

From 10 March—10 April 2016 the ELIST consortium will implement local pilot tests either as online, face to face or blended learning training. The ELIST training course consists of seven modules related to the development of entrepreneurial competences especially supporting regional development aspects and sustainability.

Training course modules

- 1—Strategic planning
- 2—Networking
- 3—Creativity and innovation
- 4—Intergenerational learning and equality
- 5—Development of transnational markets
- 6—Quality, Hygiene and Safety
- 7—Capacity building and mentoring

The ELIST Training course follows the framework of ECVET that enables even more and new approaches for exploitation purposes and the use at the long-term.

If you are interested in the training or you would like to get involved and participate actively in the testing period please contact the responsible partner in your home country or the coordinator directly.
